LEARNERS AGE 50 & ABOVE

LIVE WELL. LEARN FOREVER.
Welcome to OLLI AT LSU. Join today!

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at LSU is part of a network of 125 university-affiliated programs supported by The Bernard Osher Foundation. Our mission is to promote lifelong learning and personal growth for individuals age 50+ by providing intellectually stimulating opportunities that enrich lives. Membership entitles you to register for as many courses, field trips, or special events as you like. Additional membership benefits include:

UREC Discount:
Exercise at the UREC center on LSU’s campus at a discounted rate.

Manship Theatre Discount:
Receive a discounted rate to performances and film screenings at the Manship Theatre. Use code “OLLIF” for the film discount and “OLLIP” for the performance discount.

OLLI NEWS:
A weekly email newsletter listing upcoming OLLI activities and local interests.

LSU School of Music and Dramatic Arts:
Pay the same discounted rate as LSU students for performances. Includes all events at the LSU Student Union.

Campus Federal Credit Union:
OLLI at LSU members can bank with CFCU. Stop by one of their three branches in Baton Rouge (Main Branch at 3535 Nicholson Extension, Perkins Road Financial Center at 6230 Perkins Road, or 6108 Siegen Lane), or visit campusfederal.org.

LSU Library Privileges:
Check out books from the LSU library.

With OLLI at LSU there are no tests, no grades and no homework. Just the joy of learning. JOIN TODAY AND BEGIN COURSES THIS FALL!

Frequently Asked Questions:

Who can join OLLI at LSU?
OLLI at LSU is open to anyone who meets its two requirements:
1. Is 50 years old and older
2. Enjoys learning!

What is the cost to join?
The special Spring membership fee is $25 and will be good from December 1, 2023 through June 30, 2024. The membership fee is tax deductible.

Where are classes offered?
Members can register for courses in three locations, also known as chapters:
• Camellia City - Slidell
• Felicianas - St. Francisville
• Lagniappe - Baton Rouge
When are classes offered?
Most Spring 2024 classes run from February 19 to March 29. Registration begins on January 22.

How can I attend classes?
Classes are offered in three formats:

- In-person: Offered at various locations in Baton Rouge, St. Francisville and Slidell. Registration will be limited to classroom capacity.

- Zoom Online: Classes are not recorded and must be attended on the date and time listed. Zoom links will be sent a few days prior to the start of the class.

- Hybrid: Offered in the classroom and via Zoom at the same time.

How do I register for courses?
Visit ce.lsu.edu/olli to browse our course offerings and register. Payment is only accepted via debit and credit cards.

What are the cancellation policies?
Classes are occasionally canceled due to inclement weather. OLLI at LSU follows the St. Tammany Parish School System for the Camellia City Chapter (Slidell), EBR Parish School System for Lagniappe Chapter (Baton Rouge), and the WFP School System for the Felicianas Chapter (St. Francisville) cancellations during the fall and spring semesters. During the summer, OLLI at LSU follows LSU’s closing announcements (posted on lsu.edu). Courses with low enrollment as of Friday, February 9, may be canceled. If you register by Friday, February 9 and your course is canceled, you may either receive a refund or credit the course fee to another course (with no additional fees).

Are there discounts for registering early?
Yes! Register by Sunday, February 4 at 11:59 p.m. CT and receive $5 off each course.

What is the photography policy?
We often take pictures of OLLI participants and instructors for use in our print and electronic publications. If you do not want us to use your photograph, please notify the photographer at the event.

How can I stay connected on social media?
Join our Facebook group at facebook.com/groups/olli.lsu

Who do I contact with questions?
Contact the OLLI at LSU office at 225-578-2500 between 8:00am – 4:30pm, Monday – Friday; or OLLI@outreach.lsu.edu.

Volunteers Make OLLI Happen!

As a member-driven and member-led program, OLLI offers many opportunities for you to become actively involved from serving on a committee to volunteering as a greeter.

BE AN OLLI VOLUNTEER

- Teach an OLLI course - Do you want to share your passion, develop innovative learning experiences and inspire others to learn without burden of grades or homework?
- Assist in the classroom - Work behind the scenes to help courses run smoothly, interact with instructors, and students. A training is held each semester.
- Join the OLLI Curriculum Committee - Develop classes, interact with community. Meets once a month.
- Use your skills - Do you like organizing social events, writing articles or blogs, taking photographs, or traveling? Are there other skills or connections that you have and would like to use to support OLLI?

Email the OLLI office at OLLI@outreach.lsu.edu to volunteer today!

100 D-Days – The War Against the Rising Sun

This course, a bookend to the course War in the Skies: The Air War in Europe 1939-45, covers the War in the Pacific, with a particular focus on the air war. It traces the development of Japan as a modern military power, its early triumphs in Asia and the South Pacific, and how the Allies – particularly the US – turned the tide, mainly using air power launched from carriers or air bases captured during the “island hopping” campaigns of 1943-45. It concludes with the ultimate immolation of Japan under the weight of American incendiaries and – eventually – two atomic bombs.

Time & Dates: 9:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.
Wednesday, February 21, 28, March 6, 13, 20
Course Code: OLANIMAL(1)
Course Fee: $35 (early bird $30)
Instructor: Buck Beasom
Coordinator: Rich Hirsch
Location: Zoom Online

The Animal Kingdom – Well, Some of It, Anyway!

Our planet’s wide variety of life zones creates thousands of species that live, hunt, and play in the air, in the arboreal habitat, underground, on land, in fresh water, and in salt water. We’ll visit each habitat and learn about some of the animals there.

Time & Dates: 2:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.
Tuesday, February 20, 27, March 5, 12, 19, 26
Course Code: OL100(1)
Course Fee: $40 (early bird $35)
Instructor: Dr. Stephenie Slahor
Coordinator: Rich Hirsch
Location: Zoom Online

Brain and Memory Activation

Have you been feeling brain fog, fatigue, memory loss or overwhelmed? Scientists used to think that the brain naturally deteriorated as we age, but the newest research has coined a wonderful term called “neuroplasticity,” which is the ability of neural networks in the brain to change through growth and reorganization even as we age. In this class, we will utilize brain-stimulating exercises with the intention of building an empowered perspective about our brains. Learn about the latest cutting-edge research and techniques that involve blending Western and Eastern philosophy and practices.

Time & Dates: 9:00 a.m. – 10:30 a.m.
Monday, February 19, 26, March 4, 11
Course Code: OLBRAIN(1)
Course Fee: $25 (early bird $20)
Instructor: Katherine Robinson
Coordinator: Bernadine Johnson
Location: Zoom Online

Beginning Bridge 3 – Slams and Splinters

Online bridge platforms are getting better all the time, both for playing and for teaching. This class continues our bridge-playing adventures with a closer look at how to bid, play, and defend slams, including how to recognize “danger hands” before it’s too late. The course calls for basic comfort with bidding and playing game contracts, whether or not you have taken OLLI Beginning Bridge classes. Step-by-step instructions are included for getting onto the bridge platform from Zoom.

Time & Dates: 2:30 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Wednesday, February 21, 28, March 6, 13, 20, 27
Course Code: OLBRDIGE3(1)
Course Fee: $45 (early bird $40)
Instructor: Martha Robson
Coordinator: Martha Robson
Location: Zoom Online

Food – Ordinary, Surprising, Amazing!

We eat for survival and nutrition, but food is much more than that. We’ll explore varieties, food safety, harvest/processing/marketing, domestic vs. imported foods, whether to microwave or not, food etiquette, and other “ordinary, surprising, and amazing” things about food!

Time & Dates: 2:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.
Thursday, February 22, 29, March 7, 14
Course Code: OLFOOD(1)

Democracy in America: Alexis de Tocqueville’s Magnum Opus V

In this course, we will examine Alexis de Tocqueville’s most-read work, Democracy in America. In the 1830s, the French aristocrat toured the fledgling United States with the intention of studying its prisons. The scope of the work grew into a thorough study of the Antebellum United States as a whole; today, his work is considered to be the most significant study of America that was conducted by a foreigner. He assessed the American character by observing the country’s institutions, literature, art, race, family, private associations, and other facets of American life. De Tocqueville tried to understand American democracy and its relationship to equality and excellence. Throughout the course, we will arrive at fundamental questions about our character as Americans and the nature of our democracy. This course is a continuation of Democracy in America: Volume I of Alexis de Tocqueville’s Magnum Opus. This is a continuation of previous classes, but all are welcome to join!

Time & Dates: 5:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

Reflection and Choice: The Federalist Papers, II

This is a course on the Federalist Papers. Alexander Hamilton, James Madison, and John Jay wrote the Federalist Papers under the pseudonym Publius in 1787. Their goal was to convince the citizens of New York to support the Constitution. Together, we will read the Federalist Papers from the beginning and ask important questions about the nature of our government. While this course is a continuation of the one taught last semester, all are welcome to join!

Time & Dates: 5:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.
Tuesday, February 20, 27, March 5, 12, 19, 25
Course Code: OLFLECT(2)
Course Fee: $45 (early bird $40)
Instructor: Katie Bailey
Coordinator: Bud Snowden
Location: Zoom Online

The War in the Skies – 1939-1945

This course traces the development of military aviation, the designers and fliers who participated in that development and how that process led to the greatest clash of machines in the history of warfare. We follow the Luftwaffe, the RAF, and the USAAF through their early years, learn how each enjoyed its “Finest Hour” and explore how innovation, bravery, folly, and – ultimately – American industrial might decide the war. This course has extensive images, animated graphics and embedded video from historical sources, TV miniseries and Hollywood Films.

Time & Dates: 9:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.
Wednesday, January 24, 31, February 7, 14 (Beginning earlier than normal schedule)
Course Code: OLWAR(3)
Course Fee: $35 (early bird $30)
Instructor: Buck Beasom

Kate Chopin’s Secrets in A Night in Acadie

Louisiana author Kate Chopin (1850-1904) specialized in secrets. Her short stories in A Night in Acadie tell some revealing truths about runaway marriages; people who convert from bad to good--or the opposite; and especially characters with secret, sometimes shocking yearnings.

Time & Dates: 11:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
Tuesday, February 20, 27, March 5, 12, 19, 26
Course Code: OLNIA(2)

Taming the Monkey Mind: Introduction to Meditation and Mindfulness

Come take a meditative journey to connect to yourself on a deeper level. Stimulate your brain and learn how to tame the monkey mind through a variety of meditative mindfulness and breathing techniques. Buddha described the human mind as being filled with drunken monkeys, jumping around screeching, and carrying on endlessly. We all have monkey minds, with dozens of monkeys clamoring for our attention. This can cause a lot of stress, with about 70,000 thoughts a day, most of which are repetitive. These monkeys can disrupt our sense of peace and presence. In this class, we will explore the benefits of meditation and create a practice that fits your lifestyle.

Black and White Films – A Selection

Study and appreciation of selected films from the 1940s through present time, whose grandeur derives from being shot in black and white. We will discuss and view clips from films from the black-and-white era that are distinctive because of the monochromatic format, and films intentionally shot in black and white during the present era of color photography. We will discuss the cinematographers and directors, plots, the critic’s and public’s reception, and what the black-and-white-format contributes to the uniqueness of the film. The majority of the films featured will be dramas, with some comedies.

The Civil Rights Movement in Mississippi 🗓

Mississippi is one of the first states that most Americans identify with the civil rights movement. The murder of Emmett Till, integration of Ole Miss, and assassination of Medgar Evers are commonly associated with the Mississippi Movement, but most people are less familiar with the decades of grassroots organizing that made progress possible in Mississippi. This course will explore the stories of Mississippi activists and organizations who made the changes outside of the national spotlight. We'll also consider how key events like the murder of Emmett Till, Brown v. Board of Education, 1964 Mississippi Summer Project (Freedom Summer), and the passage of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 influenced the shape of the civil rights movement in Mississippi. This course will provide a new perspective on both the civil rights movement and Mississippi's history.

HYBRID - Dante’s Divine Comedy: Popular Ideas of the Afterlife

Dante’s long poem The Divine Comedy, the most famous work of Italian literature, is a masterpiece that presents a vivid depiction of the afterlife in heaven, purgatory, and hell. This specific version of the afterlife has permeated popular thought for the 700 hundred years since its completion in 1321. In this class, we will look at how this medieval poem has shaped our ideas of life after death in the Western world. We will read Dante’s humanist view of medieval Europe and of man’s place in the universe as an influential account that in many ways eclipses the Bible as a blueprint for salvation.

This semester we will take a mostly light-hearted look at movies with robbery at the center of the plot. Three films will be viewed and discussed: The Lavender Hill Mob (1951), a classic comic caper starring Alec Guinness. Alfred Hitchcock’s To Catch a Thief (1955), starring Cary Grant and Grace Kelly. The Duke (2020), featuring Jim Broadbent as a sixty-year-old taxi driver who plots to steal a famous painting and Helen Mirren as his beleaguered wife.

HYBRID – The Great Battles of World War I

World War I was a war known for fighting in trenches. The two sides — British and French on one and Germans on the other — established trench systems opposite one another that barely moved for four years. But that did not mean the two sides did not try to break through the other’s system. Each launched major offensives that ended up in great battles with hundreds of thousands of dead and wounded. This course will present such battles, their causes, and consequences.

“Hallelujah” – Handel’s Was Not the Only One

“Hallelujah”: we say that with excitement and sometimes with relief. The Church sings it with joy today, just as it has done for centuries. Our classes will listen to and learn about a variety of musical settings from G. F. Handel to Randell Thompson, with several others mixed in. We will also examine a related expression of Church Music: the “Gloria”, from composers such as Antonio Vivaldi and Francois Poulenc. Just so you know: there will be singing.

How to be a Patient Advocate for Yourself or a Loved One 🌟

This is a grassroots education program answering the question of who needs a patient advocate. The answer is everyone! For those facing healthcare challenges either for themselves or a loved one, the medical system can be complex and overwhelming. Having an advocate to take simple steps to protect your health or the health of your loved one is key to simplifying the medical experience. Have you ever left the doctor’s office not sure what you needed to do next or felt your concerns were not heard during your appointment?

It is impossible to listen, think and communicate all at the same time when it comes to your health. In this program, you’ll learn what questions to ask, what to look for, and what to watch for during your care.

Mississippi River and Coastal Louisiana

The Mississippi River is the dominant river in the United States. The system north of St. Louis consists of 29 locks and dams designed to maintain a depth of at least 9 feet. Below St. Louis, the river is a canal. Barge and Boat traffic traverse the length of the river carrying corn, soybeans, petrochemicals, and fertilizer to the world. Cruise boats traverse the river. The river is the source of drinking and cooling water for towns along its banks. The river delivers water, nutrients, sediment, and pollutants to the coastline which is eroding because of a lack of sediment input, subsidence, and numerous dredged canals. Engineering projects are designed to stabilize the shoreline. The region is economically important for shipping ports, is a vital and productive habitat for fish and shellfish, and is a flyway for migratory birds.

Nature: Looking and Seeing

In this class you will explore the works of numerous outstanding wildlife artists and meet several local artists that focus their works on nature, each in their own way. Do you ever wonder why certain paintings and drawings appeal to you more than others? Seeing is not a mechanical process. “The eye is blind to what the mind does not see,” says an old Arabian proverb. And for the mind to see, it must not only be on the alert but be capable of seeing. Science and Art look at things very differently. Science deals with things as they are; Art (that is, Representative Art) deals with things as they appear and how you feel after looking. What makes certain works of art especially attractive to you? Visual arts are related, for they are based on the same visual elements and the same principles of composition, whether they are painting, photography, landscape design, architecture. Art is a language that you will come to understand and appreciate.

New Orleans Jazz: Origins to Revival 🎷

The story of New Orleans jazz is the story of a unique musical style that impacted popular culture far beyond the bounds of the Crescent City. Performers like Jelly Roll Morton, Louis Armstrong, and Pete Fountain became known worldwide. Using video clips and lots of recorded music, in this course we will examine the complex origins of jazz, its rise in popularity in the 1920s and decline in the Depression years, and its revival in the years after World War II.

Rubik's Cube for Beginners

Are you looking for a fun and stimulating way to keep your mind sharp and your fingers nimble? The Rubik's Cube is a great puzzle very similar to Sudoku in many ways. Rubik's Cube solving is a low-impact hobby that exercises your brain, improves hand-eye coordination, and provides endless entertainment. This class will break down the steps involved in solving the cube into small pieces. You will not be solving the cube in the beginning but just practicing a few certain moves in a relaxing way. Then we will gradually move more of the steps into place so you can learn each step and solve the puzzle.

Religion in American Public Life – A Historical Overview

Americans today often disagree on whether or not the United States is a Christian nation as well as the role religion should play in American society and that government should play in religion. Our course will not seek to answer such questions but instead will offer an overview of religion in American history, beginning with its role in the original English colonies. It will then analyze the era of the Revolution, the adoption of the Constitution, and the separation of church and state at the state level. Religion nonetheless remained crucial and controversial throughout the nineteenth century, and the course will trace these developments as well. It will then explore the increasing religious diversity within the country and the battles over religion’s role in the 1920s. After exploring developments in the 1950s and 1960s, our survey will end with an analysis of the debates since the late 1970s.

Upcoming Controversial Supreme Court Cases

This class will review five important cases the U.S. Supreme Court will hear (or is likely to hear) in its 2023-24 term. One case involves the politically charged question of whether states can ban medical gender transition for minors. Other cases will involve recent 1st Amendment issues, such as whether states may outlaw viewpoint discrimination by social media companies, or when the government improperly influences social media companies to suppress speech the government disfavors. The class will also consider less sensational, but perhaps more far-reaching cases regarding how much discretion administrative agencies have to interpret unclear laws. The current Supreme Court is not one to shy away from controversy and this makes for very interesting court-watching.

Vikings

They raided and plundered the Christian and Islamic world! They occupied Britain and Ireland! They settled in Normandy, Iceland, and Greenland! They founded Russia! And they discovered a new world: North America! We know them as medieval seafarers, traders, explorers, as well as pirates and warriors. But who were these people really? In this lecture series, we will explore, in greater depth, the culture, geography, history, mythology, explorations, conquests, motivations and technology of the world of these Northmen. We will describe the life and adventures of some of the most notorious men and women of the Viking Era.

EMANUEL ABRAMOVITS is a mechanical engineer with an MBA and has been a concert promoter since 2000. He has been directly involved in many events by international artists, like Itzhak Perlman, Gustavo Dudamel, Sarah Brightman, Roger Hodgson, ASIA, Journey, Kenny G, and many more. He designed and staged many original orchestral events, including an Event of the Year winner and several world premieres. He served as the Cultural Director at UNION ISRAELITA DE CARACAS from 2008 to 2019, releasing books and organizing film cycles, concerts, and art exhibits. He has been consistently teaching online and in presence across the U.S. since 2020.

ADAM BOSWORTH was born in Baton Rouge, LA. He became heavily involved in wine knowledge while working at Calandro’s at 21 years old. Adam became infatuated with old-world style wines, and his desire for them led him to earn a WSET level one certification. After Calandro’s, Adam made his way to Martin’s Wine and Spirits where he is an assistant manager and instructor for events. Wine is his passion, and sharing his knowledge is beneficial for the whole town!

DR. MATTHEW CALAMIA is an Associate Professor in the Department of Psychology at LSU. He has a PhD in Clinical Psychology from the University of Iowa. His research on healthy cognitive aging and neurocognitive disorders led him to receive the 2021 Early Career Award from the National Academy of Neuropsychology. He is also the Director of the LSU Psychology Services Center, providing direct services to those with neurocognitive disorders in private practice at Jefferson Neurobehavioral Group.

GARY CASTEEL has a BS in Computer Science from the University of Florida and an MS in Computer Science from Texas A&M. Following a 23-year stint in the US Air Force, he worked for 17 years supporting the NATO intelligence mission in postings in The Netherlands and Belgium. He strenuously rejects the assertion that his primary qualification for moderating the Great Decisions course dealing with global issues is that he knows a lot of foreigners.

KATIE BAILEY is a student in the Master of Library and Information Science program at LSU. She is also getting her Graduate Certificate in Archival Studies. She received her MA in History from LSU in August 2022. Katie graduated from Ashland in December of 2019 with a BA in History
